

Music Captain

Purpose of Role:

- To represent the musical ideas of students at JCG and to communicate these ideas to the Music Department
- To generate an enthusiasm for music and music activities within the College

Specific Responsibilities:

- Meet regularly with Music Department staff
- Oversee the smooth running of House Music and liaise with the Head of House and House Captains/Deputy House Captains to ensure that all Houses have appropriate repertoire and personnel for all of the classes
- Participate in the organisation of, and attend, all concerts and co-ordinate a team of Sixth Form students for front of house, stage management and the supervision of younger students
- Participate in the organisation and smooth running of the Carol Service and Prizegiving
- Liaise with the Head Girl/Deputy Head Girls with regard to the planning of music for the Leavers' Service
- Assist with music presentations at Year 9 and Year 11 Options Evenings
- Report in assembly on concerts, Eisteddfod results and competitions; give out music notices, and to assist in the presentation of music examination certificates
- Write a termly report for JCG Life, as directed by the Head of Music
- Any other duty as required by the Head of Music

Person Specification:

It is envisaged that the Music Captain/Deputy Music Captain will be a high calibre, respected musician who is seen to be an excellent role model for other musicians at JCG. She will be an enthusiastic and motivating force and will be involved in a number of musical activities in school. She will possess presence and commitment.